Dear Parents/Carers

We finish the week in glorious sunshine. I have seen some beautiful pictures of Carding Mill Valley, Shropshire on our Twitter feed @BVG51527. I am very jealous of the Y11 Geographers who were there on a field trip today. Thanks to all the Geography team for organising this trip.

We have begun Black History Month here at school. It was good to welcome Pastor Errol Lawson to school on Thursday who gave an inspiring talk about Nelson Mandela and what he can teach us about courage, passion for learning and respect. Also in assemblies this week we have had the Year 7 and 8 Spelling Bee in which Red House were triumphant and Mr Baugh gave an excellent talk to Year 11 on 'Sleep'.

It has been a busy time in the Library. The student librarian leaders and Miss Brown are delighted with their new ties! They have been very busy organising our Lichfield Literature Festival event on Monday. Period 3 on Monday sees Year 7, and our Year 5 visitors from Whitehouse Common, listening to the author Guy Bass. Period 5 sees Year 8 listening to the author Bryony Pearce. Please can I encourage all Year 7 and 8 to bring along a £1 voluntary contribution to help fund Monday's author visits. Please also note that Guy Bass will be selling his most recent book, for those who wish, for purchase at £5.99. Lunchtime on Monday also sees our first ever 'book swap'. Details are below.

Got a book you don't read anymore?

- Wrap it up in any paper
- Label it with:
 - genre
 - suitable age
- Bring it to school on Monday 5th Oct
- Leave it on the table outside the school office and get a ticket from a student librarian
- Come back @ lunch time to choose a new book

In debating this week we have been focussed on the motion, 'This House believes that to prepare for peace, you need to prepare for war'. Once again there were some fine contributions. Thank you to Siobhan Wragg for chairing. The motion was carried.

I enjoyed meeting the Chair and Deputy Chair of the School Council this week, Joe Keenan and Leo Morton. We will keep you posted on a number of key areas for improvement.

We have had an incredible sporting week. The Year 7s have made a great start to their Rugby careers at Bromsgrove. The U12C Team are definitely the 'team of the week' with a 41-0 victory. Elsewhere we had big wins in Netball, Hockey and Cross Country. To hear of our performance this week in sport and to see what's coming up soon visit www.bvgssport.co.uk.

Yours sincerely

Book of the Week

BOOK OF THE WEEK
COMING TO SCHOOL ON 5TH OCTOBER

♦ Sail. Salvage. Survive. Toby's father is a wanted man. For as long as Toby can remember, they've been on the run. The Phoenix has become their home, their backyard the junk-filled seas surrounding it. The crew of the Banshee lives for hunting down the Phoenix and now they're closing in. Ayla has spent her whole life fighting - preparing for the moment when the Banshee will face its ultimate enemy. But Toby doesn't want to run any more and Ayla is his only hope. Can he turn an old feud into a new alliance? The future is in their hands. Perfect for fans of Veronica Roth, Anthony Horowitz and Suzanne Collins. LICHFIELD LITERATURE FESTIVAL

Art and Design Star of the Week

Architectural drawing based on Coventry Cathedral, by Alex Hemming, 11G.

Alex is a talented student, who puts a lot of time and effort into all his work. This secondary observational drawing shows detail and tone using biro cross hatching. Well done!
