Dear Parents/Carers

This week the school has reverberated to sounds of Christmas carols being sung and played. All tickets have been sold for the Christmas Concert on Tuesday. If anyone who has bought a ticket, knows they are not now able to attend, please return your tickets to the School Club Office and Mrs Foster so we can sell on to those parents keen to see their children perform.

Please note that our Library Book Fair continues on Monday and Tuesday (including before the concert and during the interval). It has already been quite useful for me with my Christmas shopping!

Wednesday to Friday have seen performances of our Senior School Production in conjunction with Centrestage School of Speech and Drama of Jim Cartwright's play 'Two' from 1989. It is a moving and dynamic play, and I have to say that the production and acting have been absolutely superb. If you are able to attend this evening, I would commend this to you. There are some tickets still available on the door. Well done to our amazing actors:

Thank you also to the Technical Crew; Eben Gutteridge, Ryan Bagley, Ben Saveker, Michael Saunders, Nikheleshwar Madamsetty, Ho-San Cheng, Jamie Barber and Edward Shakespeare for their brilliant work on the lighting and sound. You have been fantastic too!

Above all a big thank you to Rebekah O'Dowd, Ella McGrail and Simon Garrington from Centrestage for their energy, expertise and commitment.

This time of year is also quite a reflective one. There was much to think about for the Lower Sixth at Monday's Parents' Evening as they prepare for the mock examinations for the first week back after Christmas. Similarly, Year 11 have been thinking about their learning from the experience of the mock examinations. Year 11 full reports are issued next week.

Today we have held a non-uniform day with £929.28 going to our project in Africa. Thank you to all who contributed.

It is always nice to receive visits from Old Veseyans. Thank you to Oliver Ayto who returned from Oxford University to give an assembly to the Lower Sixth this afternoon.

Well done to our top ten merit winners this week: Hamzah Mahmood 10W, Shoaib Sheraz 10W, Oliver Gray-Nimmo 7G, Haaris Butt 9R, Finlay Port 9R, Guvraj Dhillon 10R, Sam Whitehouse 10G, Ethan Finney 7G, Matthew Whitehouse 7G and Harry West 10W.

It was a pleasure this week to welcome Simoné Noordermeer, cousin of Anton Spencer in Year 7 this week, visiting us from South Africa. She enjoyed visiting lessons on Thursday morning.

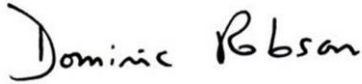

Don't forget that all students have until Thursday to submit their application to the PAC student voice fund to improve our school. <http://www.bvgs.co.uk/student-voice-fund-application-2015>.

Also why not have a read of the School Captain, John Clarke's, latest blog which is available to read here: <http://www.bvgs.co.uk/school-captains-blog>.

Finally thanks to all parents and students for attending the Iceland 2016 meeting this week. For further detail visit: <http://www.bvgs.co.uk/iceland-2016-trip-presentation>.

Art Star of the Week

Krishan Patel, 7B Having spent the autumn term studying portraiture, students were asked to carry out artist research focussing on the work of Chuck Close. As part of this, individuals were asked to complete a transcription from one of his paintings. Krishan selected the eye detail and, despite the level of difficulty, produced a stunning piece of work in pencil crayon.
