Dealing with Late Homework Years 7-13

Phase 1

Class teacher Action

- If a student fails to produce a piece of homework, the class teacher will enter the issue on SIMS and issue a detention.
- Detention will be held the following day, after school, for one hour between 3.30 and 4.30.
- Once late homework has been recorded three times in any given academic year, students enter phase two below.

Dealing with Poor Behaviour Years 7-13

Phase 1

Staff Member/Class teacher detention: 15 mins (minimum)

- If a student has a single incident of behaviour recorded, the staff member/class teacher will issue a detention
- For incidents occurring outside the classroom the detention will be monitored and delivered at the discretion of the Head of Year

Head of Year detention: 30 mins (minimum)

- If a student has two recorded behaviour events, a Head of Year detention for 30 mins will be issued

Repeated pattern of behaviour incidents - Head of Year action: 60 mins

- If a student has three recorded behaviour events in an academic year, they will be issued with a Head of Year detention to be held on Fridays at 3.25

Homework and Behaviour - Phase 2, years 7-13

Continued/persistent homework, lateness or behaviour issues following 3 school detentions

- HOY to liaise with parents, targets set and possible internal isolation and report for student.

Inadequate progress made against targets

- Parents requested to attend school formal meeting with Head of Year and/or DSL/Deputy Head
- Student placed on Internal Isolation for all lessons and targets set and monitored.

Head Teacher Involvement

- In extreme cases, where no progress is made and behaviour continues to disrupt the learning of others, on agreement by HOY, Deputy Head, Head:
  - External exclusion

On advice of Head Teacher, actions which will result in the student no longer being able to attend BVGS

- Managed Move/Alternative Provision/Permanent Exclusion.

Dealing with Late Arrival and Attendance, years 7-13

Staff Member/Class teacher detention: 60 mins (minimum)

- Once a student has three recorded incidents of either being late to school or late to a lesson, the student will attend an afterschool detention for 60 mins
- Each time thereafter a student has an additional three recorded incidents of being late to school or a lesson, they will attend an after school detention
- Phase 2 actions will only be instigated under the guidance of the Head of Year
