Parents/Carers of Year 8

Dear Parents/Carers

Macbeth/Living with Lady Macbeth - Friday 23 March at 2:00pm

One of the key features of the GCSE English Curriculum is the study of Shakespeare, arguably one of the world's greatest ever writers. It is never too early to be exposed to Shakespeare's brilliant work.

That is why all Year 7 and 8 will be watching 'Macbeth', here at school, on Friday 23 March, presented by BVGS Drama students in conjunction with Centrestage School of Speech and Drama. Though it is a school production, there are quite a few costs associated with it. Therefore, we are asking parents to make a voluntary contribution of £4 for the experience.

This play has the full blessing of the English Department under Mrs Haywood's leadership. She and her team are very keen to encourage enthusiasm for English in all its forms. I can assure you that the production will strive to be accessible, as well as faithful to the original text.

Please can all monies be sent to Mrs Foster in the School Club Office in an envelope marked 'Macbeth Year 8' by Friday 16 March.

Thank you for your support.

Yours sincerely

Dominic Robson
Headteacher
