Dear Parents/Guardians,

We will be taking a group of forty students (present Y10) to see the latest RSC performance of Macbeth at the Barbican Theatre, London on Thursday 18th October 2018. The event provides an excellent opportunity to develop students' understanding of a set GCSE text, in addition to providing an enriching cultural experience at one of Europe's finest theatres. In the interests of fairness, boys will be selected at random once the reply slips have been collected.

Students will need to arrive at Bishop Vesey's Grammar School by 8.15am, on the day of the event. We will travel by coach to the Barbican Theatre in London. We anticipate arriving back at Bishop Vesey's Grammar School for 6.30pm. The cost of the event (including transport and theatre admission) is £36. Students do not need to wear uniform. All students will need to bring a packed lunch. We cannot guarantee that food will be available to purchase at the theatre. Students may bring money for the purchase of programmes and interval refreshments.

To apply for a place, please complete the reply slip below and return to Ms Foster by Friday 29th June 2018. A second letter, including a request for payment, will be sent to the lucky applicants after this date.

Yours faithfully,

Mr V Byrne

Teacher of English
