SIMS Parent App for Year 12 Parents

Dear Parents,

We are writing to you to let you know that we are piloting the "SIMS Parent App" over the next few weeks. We are now launching the App with parents of Year 12 students, and we are hoping that you will log into the App and explore its functionality, and then give us some feedback (we will send a short online survey for you to fill in). After an initial trial period we are then planning to launch this in a staged manner with other Year Groups. Details of how to download and log in to the App are attached. You will receive an invitation to register on the system in a separate email over the next few days.

The system is still under development and currently you will be able to access details about your son/daughter such as timetable and teacher information, attendance data, merits and behaviour points and recent reports. There may still be glitches or bugs that we have not identified and we would be grateful if you would be able to give us some feedback about the accuracy and performance of the system. We'd like to point out that the Conduct summary does not currently list the academic subject or the name of the teacher who awarded the merit or behaviour point. We are hopeful that this will change in the future, but for now you will have to rely on obtaining this information directly from your son or daughter! We would like to reassure you that no teacher will issue a behaviour point without speaking to the student and making sure that the reasons for the point are clear.

The system has push notifications and will send you updates for each new development such as a merit given.

Please note: if you discover that your son/daughter has received a behaviour point and you want to know more, please, in the first instance, contact the teacher who issued it. Please bear in mind the BVGS Parent Charter (see our website) which sets out clear expectations for response times to your queries, and that you will have to ask your son/daughter who issued it.

This system allows you to check the accuracy of the data that we hold about you and your child. It also allows you to submit change requests if you spot any inaccuracies with this information.

One new function is the Homework system: this will allow teachers to record details of homework set on our central system (known as SIMS) and subsequently you will be able to see these details in the App. We are planning to trial the homework module with specific teaching groups over the next few months, so please do not worry if you see little or no homework listed at first.

If you have any queries, please feel free to email me on r.bowen@bishopveseys.bham.sch.uk

Many thanks for your support in this exciting new development.
